SUBJECT INDEX

A

Acquired immune deficiency syndrome
  computer-based AIDS education program and, 25
  computer-supported versus manually generated nursing care plans and, 19
AIDSNET, 145
American Journal of Nursing Company, 63
APA4WP, 238
Attitudes, of nurses
  toward computer assisted instruction, 6
  toward computerization, 72

B

Bar codes, patient care medication and recording system using, 116
Bedside computers, monitor-based software application programs and, 51
Bibliography, of statistics in nursing and allied health education and literature, 130, 158
Body Mechanics, 240
Book Reviews, Buyer's Guide to Bedside Computer Systems, The, 44

C

Careers, in nursing informatics, 165
CICA CDROM, 240
CINAHL, 62
Community health nursing
  computer simulation program to assess decision-making process in child health care and, 171
  database design for, 109
Computer(s)
  computer-supported versus manually-generated nursing care plans and, 19
  development and implementation of dynamic test system and, 213 managing information used when weaning patients from mechanical ventilation and, 65
  nurses' attitudes toward, 72
  nursing case management and, 250
  statistics in nursing and allied health education and literature and, 130, 158
Computer assisted instruction
  computer-based AIDS education program and, 25
  integration of theoretical constructs into design of, 219
  for preoperative and postoperative patient education in joint replacement surgery, 208
  registered nurses' attitudes toward, 6 relationship between planned change and successful implementation of, 85
  theory-based approach to computer skill development in nursing administration and, 152
Computer-based patient record, 191
Computer graphics, developmental theory and, 81
Computer laboratory coordinator, 235
ComputerLink, 199
Computer simulations, as strategy for evaluation decision-making skills of nursing students, 264
Computer system, implementation of, 9
Continuing education, monitor-based software application programs on bedside computers and, 51
COVIRA, 197

D

Databases
  design of, for community health data, 109
  privacy issues in development of Nursing Minimum Data Set and, 14 Decision making
  computer simulation program to assess decision-making process in child health care and, 171
  computer simulations as strategy for evaluating decision-making skills of nursing students and, 264
  theory-based approach to computer skill development in nursing administration and, 152
Developmental theory, computer graphics and, 81
Dynamic test system, development and implementation of, 213
